Day 2 + 3 (Sun-Mon) Anse Lazio – Curieuse – St. Pierre -Praslin / Baie Ste. Anne

Our sailing cruise through the unique island paradise of the Inner Islands starts with a long distance track of approximately 25 nautical miles to Praslin. Four or five hours of happy sailing between Sainte Anne until we reach the snow-white beach of Anse Lazio which is often described as one of the most beautiful beaches in the world.

These 2 days we will explore the neighboring islands of Praslin . The island of Curieuse is part of the Marine National Park, with great tortoises and mangrove forests. We will pass by the small island of St. Pierre which is spectacular for snorkeling. You will have time for swimming, snorkeling (equipment on board), fishing, motoring in a dinghy, good conversation and lots of fun. Our itinerary is made by the wind and the waves – and created by our high professional skipper and his responsibility for your personal safety and comfort.

Our cruise ends in Baie St. Anne, Praslin.

Start: Tuesday 12.00h Baie St. Anne, Praslin

End: Saturday 08.00h Eden Island Marina North, Eden Island, Mahe

Day 1 (Tue) Baie Ste. Anne - Praslin Island / North

We start from the port of Baie St. Anne right next to the ferry boats from / to Mahé and La Digue.

Welcome on board. After a short briefing and check into your cabin we set sails in the afternoon.

Overnight accommodation is usually anchored in a sheltered bay around the islands of Praslin and La Digue.

Day 2 - 5 (Wed-Fri) Grand and Petit Soeur- Ile Coco - Félicité - La Digue

Visit the island of Curieuse with its great tortoises and walk through the mangrove forests. If you like hiking you will have the opportunity to find your own dream beach which you will have all for yourself.

Explore the island of Grand Soeur and enjoy snorkeling around Félicité and Isle Cocos which is made of large rocks with strange regular stripes carved by the sea, forming a beautiful sight with a great harmony of shapes and colours. Almost everywhere there is ample opportunity for swimming, snorkeling (equipment on board), fishing, motoring in a dinghy, good conversation and lots of fun. Rent a bike at La Digue and visit this quiet and beautiful island, with its tracks winding under tall palm trees and along houses with roofs of palm leaves, small coprah factories, fine white sandy beaches and large polished rocks. La Digue might be the most beautiful island in the Seychelles. No cars, only bicycles or carts drawn by oxen.

On Friday we will do the crossing to Mahe. Our cruise ends in our home port at Eden Island Marina.

Friday night you will have the opportunity to enjoy the bars and shops at Eden Island Boardwalk.

Day 1 (Sat) Mahé Island - Sainte Anne Marine National Park

The home port of our catamaran on Mahé is conveniently located just 10 minutes by car from the International Airport and just as far from the capital Victoria. Welcome on board. After a short briefing you check into your cabin. We set sails in the afternoon and head for the nearby Ste. Anne Marine National Park. You can expect over 150 species of fish and a fascinating underwater world in this projected nature retreat. No noisy watersports disturbs the idyll. You have the opportunity by snorkel and flippers to explore the magical nature aquarium under the turquoise surface. Anchor in paradise.

Day 2 - 7 (Sun - Fri) Cousin/Cousine – North of Praslin Island - Curieuse - La Digue - Anse Lazio - Ile Coco - Félicité - Praslin / Baie Ste. Anne

Our sailing cruise through the unique island paradise of the Inner Islands starts with the first of two long distance tracks of approximately 25 nautical miles each. Four or five hours of happy sailing between Sainte Anne and the Inner Islands – and back on day 7! Overnight accommodation is usually anchored in a sheltered bay on the islands of Praslin and La Digue. Also, the ports of La Passe (on La Digue) and Baie Ste. Anne (on Praslin) are running to give you the opportunity to landfall.

Rent a bike at La Digue and visit this quiet and beautiful island, with its tracks winding under tall palm trees and along houses with roofs of palm leaves, small coprah factories, fine white sandy beaches and large polished rocks, La Digue might be the most beautiful island in the Seychelles. No cars, only bicycles or carts drawn by oxen.

On Praslin, you should take a walk to the National Park Vallee de Mai. The path wanders in the near obscurity created by the enormous palm leaves of “Cocos de mer”. The trunks are 40m high and sway gently in the breeze, making a strange rustling sound as they rub against each other.

Since 1968, Cousin Island has been a nature reserve and bird sanctuary with rare species and a few giant tortoises. The island of Curieuse is part of the Marine National Park, more than a hundred tortoises live here. We also cruise to Cocos Island which is made of large rocks with strange regular stripes carved by the sea, forming a beautiful sight with a great harmony of shapes and colours.

Almost everywhere there is ample opportunity for swimming, snorkeling (you'll find equipment on board), fishing, motoring in a dinghy, good conversation and lots of fun. The snow-white beach of Anse Lazio is described as one of the most beautiful beaches in the world. But in the north and east of Praslin are fantastic neighboring islands, like pearls strung on a valuable necklace, one more beautiful than the other. Our itinerary is made by the wind and the waves – and created by our high professional skipper and his responsibility for your personal safety and comfort.

Our cruise ends where it starts: in our home port at Eden Island Marina. Friday night you will have the opportunity to enjoy the bars and shops at Eden Island Boardwalk.
